

Sewerage Talked At Meet

W.R. Neal of Fort Worth, who plans to build a 32-unit motel here, is expected in Canyon this week to confer with City officials.

City Manager Bill York, under instructions from the City Commission, advised Neal last week the City can furnish him with water but will be unable to supply a sewerage system.

The Fort Worth contractor's plans also call for a swimming pool and a restaurant at the motel site on the property immediately north of the Canyon Bowling Alley.

York said Neal told him in a long distance telephone conversation he was unconcerned about the sewerage problem since he could, if necessary, utilize a septic treatment tank.

The city manager quoted Neal as saying he thought the $4,882 it would cost him to lay a water line to the site was "high."

York and Mayor Delbert Lowes met with a Canyon Chamber of Commerce committee last week and discussed the city's sewerage system. The session stemmed from the motel sewer situation.

York told the meeting the City's sewerage system is "already over-taxed, but over-taxed to the point of causing a nuisance—I don't think so."

Screw-Worm Fight Pledged By County, Area Cattlemen

Randall County livestock producers have cast their lot with other state cattlemen to rid the Southwest -- and a large section of the nation -- of screw-worms.

Some 40 area producers made that decision last week when they met with County Agricultural Agent John Brazzil in the Courthouse.

They heard his report on the latest research and progress of controlling and eradicating the screw-worm.

Livestock producers have set a $3,000,000 fund-raising goal to further their battle against the damaging flies. More than half that amount has already been collected.

Wesley Cox was named chairman of the group to solicit funds in Randall County. Committee members are Fred Berger, Newton Crain and Roland Black.

Other cattlemen will assist in the campaign. Brazzil said millions of sterile flies already are being released in the Texas Rio Grande Valley, where the pest normally winters.

"Each week now about 10 million flies are released by airplane in far south Texas counties," Brazzil added. "This number will be stepped up to 75 million flies per week by July 1."

Brazzil explained the flies are raised in special hatcheries and exposed to Cobalt-60 to sterilize them in the larvae stage. They mate with the fertile (See SCREW-WORM, page 2)

Haley Charges US Action Is Political

J. Evetts Haley, Jr., said yesterday that Federal action accusing him of over-seeding his 1960-61 wheat acreage "has political implications in the cheapest sense of the word."

"Of course," he added, "the Department of Agriculture realizes that a vote for me for Texas commissioner of agriculture will be viewed nationally as against the Federal farm program."

He charged that "the combine" of President Kennedy and U.S. Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman will "stoop to any depth to preserve their controls and further regiment the farmer."

The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Review Committee of Sequoyah County, Okla., notified the 30-year-old Canyon rancher he owes the Federal government $689.04 for over-planting.

"I'm not in trouble," Haley said. "The Department of Agriculture is in trouble. I challenge them. I am eager to get them in Federal court again. In any fair court--in any court of justice--their findings will be repudiated."

Haley said he had absolutely nothing to do with the questioned acreage, that it involved a transaction between his father and Tillman Neal, a hired hand.

Mr. Haley, Sr., he said, allowed Neal to have 15 acres of wheat on a lease basis. Neal left his job, the candidate added, and the wheat acreage then reverted to his father.

This is the second time in six years the government has (See HALEY, page 2)

Paving Program Ok'd By City Commissioners After Public Hearing

Randall CD Gets Okay From State

Randall County's Civil Defense plan has been approved by the state Division of Defense and Disaster Relief.

Marion P. Bowden, operations officer in Austin, also notified Assistant Director W. W. Sternberg, the county organization can now participate in the Texas Surplus Property Agency's program.

"You, the officials and citizens of Randall County are to be congratulated on the progress that has been made in Civil Defense planning," Bowden wrote.

The county's eligibility to participate in the surplus buying program expired last year. The TSPA has a regional office in Lubbock.

Group Wants To Extend Road Paving

The City Lake Road would be paved an additional four miles north under a plan expected to be submitted to the Randall County Commissioners' Court.

"It would give us a physical connection between the paved part of the county north and the paved part of the county south," E. E. Plank, who is spearheading the project, said.

The road is now often impassable to the school bus and other traffic during inclement weather.

Paving, he added, would reduce the driver's mileage some 200 miles a month.

The City Lake Road is now paved for five miles.

Plank toured the area last week with a Chamber of Commerce committee composed of Joe Gidden, Bob Wear and Tom Black. Manager Roland Black accompanied the group.

The proposed paving would end at Farm Road 2186, between Hollywood and Bushland. FR 2186 connects with U. S. Highway 66 at Bushland.

Pay Taxes Now, York Reminds

City Manager Bill York issues this important and timely reminder to persons with delinquent taxes for the fiscal year 1961-62:

"Unless they are paid by March 31, the city must publish the names of the persons owing the taxes. That action is prescribed by the City Charter."

Unpaid taxes became delinquent on January 31 with interest starting at one percent a year on Feb. 1. It increases one percent a month until July 1, when the figure reaches six percent.

Additionally, the delinquent taxpayer must pay an eight percent a year penalty, based on his total tax bill.

Actually, the percentage is 14 percent effective July 1. The figure remains at that level until the bill is paid.

York quoted the City Charter: "Said delinquent roll shall be published not later than ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year or as soon as possible thereafter once each week for four (4) consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the City of Canyon."

Persons with delinquent real estate taxes are subject to an additional $3.00 publication fee.

Portions Of Plan Can Be Eliminated

By WILLIAM L. PEART

An ordinance establishing an assessment paving program in Canyon has been approved by the City Commission.

That action followed a public hearing in the City Hall Monday night, when some 30 affected property owners expressed their views on the $95,582.27 project.

The Commission still has the right to delete sections from the program. That would be done by adopting amendments to the all-inclusive ordinance.

The major portion of the paving would be on Ninth Avenue, beginning at Eighth Street and moving east to the Canyon Elementary School.

Several scattered blocks in other areas are also involved. The hearing lasted less than two hours.

"What we want to determine," Mayor Delbert Lowes said, "is to what extent this proposed program would benefit the city as a whole, and to what extent it would benefit you as a property owner."

All persons attending the meeting had an opportunity to be heard--their names were announced according to the units they were in--and most of them were.

"I have no houses on my property," Mrs. R.E. Rogers, who owns five lots, told the meeting. "The paving won't do me any good. I'm against it until I get a house. I would just be paving for somebody else."

Delbert Davis said he favored the program. "I have seen 80 per cent of the persons in my block," he added, "and they are for the paving, too."

Marvin Salmon questioned whether the asphalt paving would last because of the water runoff after a rain.

"We've got our own Canadian River right there," he said. "I don't believe you fellows know how much water comes down Ninth Avenue."

Salmon, who is with the State Highway Department, said he was of the opinion a six-inch curb couldn't handle the water.

"That water flat boils down through that outfit," he added.

"Boil it all down," Mayor Lowes said to Salmon, "and what you want to know is whether we can get the job done."

Salmon said he favored paving--"It will improve the value of my property"--but pointed out he was "uneasy about handling that water."

Jim Dalley of the Centex Paving Co. of San Antonio, which will do the paving, said his company's "main job in building a road is handling that water."

Tom Anderlitch, of the First of Texas Corporation, which is handling the financing, explained the methods of payments.

It can be paid for in a lump sum, with the money placed in escrow until the paving is completed and approved by the city.

Or the financing company will accept payment in four equal installments at 25 per cent.

City Bank Is Bought

V.P. Patterson and associates of Amarillo have purchased controlling interest in The First National Bank of Canyon.

The announcement was made this week by bank officials here. The transaction was consummated several weeks ago.

Patterson is president of The First National Bank of Amarillo.

Controlling stock was purchased from Levi and James Cole. Levi Cole is president of the Canyon bank. He will remain in that position under the new ownership.

Don Standley will remain as vice-president of the Canyon bank and James Cole will continue as cashier. Chloe Ann Black will continue as assistant cashier.

Bank officials emphasized there will be no change in management.

Two Sites Picked

The Board of Education is considering buying one of two sites for its proposed second elementary school in Canyon.

One, comprising 11.9 acres, is at Twenty-eighth Street and Seventh Avenue.

The other is at Fifteenth Street and Ninth Avenue and comprises 16.55 acres.

The board agreed Tuesday night a definite site will be selected before the $600,000 bond election April 14.

If approved, the money will be used for the new school and for improvements at the present Canyon Junior High School.

"It's a matter of whether we are going to buy a new site and build," member Bill Sternberg said, "or build on an old site."

Dr. Charles R. Nester told the seven-member governing board there's "something to be said about building on a present site."

'Light' Talk At Session

Bill York, the City manager, made some "light" conversation when he got together last week with the mayor and a Chamber of Commerce committee.

He told them that:

1. Traffic lights will be installed at Fifteenth Street and Highway 60, the Hereford Highway, in 30-45 days.

2. A traffic survey will be made at Eighth Avenue and Twenty-third Street to determine if a traffic light is needed there.

3. The downtown traffic lights will probably revert to a blinking system when emergency vehicles--such as the fire truck--are in use.

Attending the session, in addition to York, were Mayor Delbert Lowes, Joe Gidden, Carroll Vaughan, Troy Martin, Jerry LaGrone, Pete Cowart, Jim Christopher and Roland Black, manager of the Chamber.

Grand Jury

Randall County Criminal District Attorney A.W. Lair was expected to present some 30 cases to the Grand Jury yesterday.

No additional information was available when this issue of The Canyon News was published.

Bob Wilkinson, left, shows the plaque he received as outgoing president of Canyon Junior Chamber of Commerce to Chan Foster, the new president.

JC's Install Chan Foster, Hear Dallas Executive

God's greatest gift to man is the power of decision.

So said Ed Speer, insurance executive from Dallas, as he spoke at the annual Canyon Junior Chamber of Commerce installation banquet here Saturday night.

Napoleon sat two days in indecision and lost the battle of Waterloo, Speer declared. Hitler couldn't make up his mind whether to invade England and lost an opportunity for world conquest.

Cornwallis dallied a week while Washington moved and then surrendered at Yorktown. Montezuma couldn't decide how to meet the conquistadores and lost an empire.

The speaker urged his listeners to assume an active role in politics.

"If you are not exerting an influence on the political scene, you may be forfeiting everything we value," he warned.

Awards went to Allen Parsons, Richard Pruett, Wayne Wirt, Bob Wilkinson and Murphy White.

Several accomplishments were noted by outgoing president, Bob Wilkinson.

Among these were attendance of four members at the state Jaycee convention, flag project, donkey basketball game with the Lions Club, fish rodeo, horse show, staging of the Nativity Scene, basketball tournament and work with Little League.

Chan Foster was installed as president of the organization to succeed Wilkinson. Installing officer was Gene Hollar, Pampa, state vice-president.

Other officers first installed were Murphy White, first vice-president; Allen Parsons, second vice-president; Doug Rittenberry, secretary; Richard Pruett, treasurer; Bob Wilkinson, state director; and Nick Dodson and Don Singleton, directors.

Vaccinate Early: Vet

The annual rabies vaccination drive will be early this year -- and at bargain rates next week.

The reason, Dr. J. L. Markham explained, is the city's new "animal license and leash or pen" ordinance which becomes effective April 1.

Dr. Markham, who owns the Veterinary Clinic on the Hereford Highway, reports he will vaccinate dogs and cats for $2.00 Monday through Friday between the hours of 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.

The regular $3.00 fee will apply during regular day office hours next week and at all times after Friday.

The ordinance, to rid Canyon of stray dogs, requires all animals to be vaccinated yearly and kept on a leash or in a pen. Dog licenses must also be purchased for all dogs kept inside the city limits.

Normally, the vaccination drive is two months later.

Dr. Markham said several cases of rabies have been reported in Amarillo.

The Veterinary Clinic will also be operated as the animal shelter, where the stray dogs and cats will be taken.

Hilltop Views

My next door neighbor, Jack McManigal handed me the following clipping the other day. I looked it over and thought of this column. It seemed so human I decided that maybe it ought to be made available to more people. I believe it will touch the heart of every dad who reads it -- maybe a few young sons and a wife or two. Jack didn't seem to remember from what paper he clipped it, but, with tears in his eyes he made me promise to return it.

This Sunday will be Fathers Day and, as always it will be a pale, undernourished, masculine parallel of Mothers Day.

One reason why Fathers Day is no more than a dim reflection of Mothers Day is that it came as an after-thought to the latter. Somebody figured that maybe the Old Man ought to have some sort of belated recognition -- not a big day, but an occasion of some sort -- so Fathers Day was born.

And the other reason for Fathers Day being such a wan affair is that Mother, after all, usually has done more to build and hold the family; has been closer to the kids -- and has mothered Dad some, too. Thus she deserves most of the credit and the adulation and the consideration, so it is proper that Dad take a back seat to her.

Sometimes, though, it seems that Dad's seat has been pushed farther back than it needs be. Sometimes, he isn't even given a kitchen chair on the second row -- instead, being relegated to standing room, 'way back against the wall.

Too frequently, the Old Man is put up with as a gruff sort of individual, constantly carping about the cost of this, that or the other thing some member of the family deems essential; just a guy who goes off to work in the morning and comes back in the evening, eats supper and goes to bed.

Even Fathers Day reflects this theme much more than it should. But the truth is, the Old Man usually is pretty valuable in the family set-up, and not just from the bread-winning angle, either. This country is full of old duffers who don't say much about it, but who, underneath, are dedicated to the philosophy of "whatever it takes from me, my wife and kids are going to have it better than my Mother, brothers, and sisters and I did."

Behind this usually unimpressive facade is a relentless drive to "give 'em the best I can," whether it be in the way of food and shelter, transportation, standing in the community, or a start in life after school days are over.

From one end of the land to the other, there are Dads who brush up their last year's suits and re-knot their last Christmas ties and apply the money which they might spend on new ones to that bottomless pit known as "family expenses."

Millions of Dads silently say to young sons, ironically but in truth: "I wish I could afford to dress as well as you do" -- especially when they get a hint from the family's young fashion-plate that Dad's looking a little seedy at the edges.

And millions of them cut themselves a little short at lunch time because the two-bits saved there needs to be spent somewhere else "for the family."

If Mother is the anchor of the home -- and she usually is -- then Dad is the anchor chain, although few ever take time to think of him in that way.

Nobody ever makes jokes about Mothers Day.

That would be comparable to making fun about the Star-Spangled Banner, or, even, something powerfully spiritual.

But everybody kids about Fathers Day: the wild tie the Old Guy gets, the handkerchief, the bedroom slippers -- and the pipe he won't smoke.

Who is he, anyhow? He's the fellow who flops down on the front room sofa after Sunday dinner, covers his face with the paper and starts snoring . . .

He's just a well-meaning old codger, especially handy to have around to meet the payments.

Or so the humorists would have us feel.

Oh, sooner or later, everybody in the family suddenly realizes that Dad wasn't such a bad geezer after all; that he did the best he could most of the time. But the trouble is, the realization sometimes comes too late.

The mail the other day brought a note from Mrs. George Blackwell, 1507 Avenue U, and along with it a letter which with great poignancy, illustrates the point. The letter, Mrs. Blackwell noted, had been in her possession for 40 years and is headed: "A Son's Letter to His Dead Father." Because it speaks for so many of us, it is herewith reproduced.

"Dear Dad: I am writing this to you, although you have been dead for 30 years.

"From your seat in the Place Beyond, I hope you can see these lines.

"I feel I must say some things to you, things I didn't know when I was a boy in your home, things I was too stupid to say.

"It's only now, after passing through the long, hard school of years; only now, when my own hair is gray, that I understand how you felt.

"I must have been a bitter trial to you. I was such a fool. I believed my own petty wisdom, and I know how ridiculous it was,

FROM THE CANYON RIM

We submit that those who would have us never criticize our government do our country no service. There must always be a loyal opposition if we are to maintain freedom.

Folks who criticize Roosevelt most severely were in the forefront when the nation was at war.

Mitch Jones says J. Evetts Haley, Sr., was one of the finest quarterbacks he ever saw play football. "He didn't care whether they weighed 75 or 200," Mitch reminisced recently.

Mitch says the senior Haley also is one of the finest storytellers he's ever heard spin a yarn about the Old West.

A Bassett hound with a Berger tag showed up at the Carroll Vaughan house recently. Carroll hasn't been able to contact the owner. Mrs. Vaughan says one Bassett hound is up for grabs if anyone is interested.

A Mexican national working for Tommy Hunter vows he saw an alligator in a nearby creek. He warned Tommy to get livestock out of the way of the brute. Tommy didn't understand at first. The bracer drew a picture for his patron.

"That's a waterdog," Tommy told him.

"He's seven feet long, senior," the bracer replied.

Alvin Friemel recently went on a sightseeing tour of Colorado state prison. He was disappointed. He had to pay to get in and then about all he saw was a curio shop where trinkets made by prisoners are offered for sale to tourists.

The China papers have been released at long last. For the first time we get a clear picture of what led up to the collapse of Chiang and the rise of communism in Southeast Asia.

Said Pat Hurley Tuesday, "At the time I stated: The Yalta secret agreement is the blueprint for the communist conquest of China."

Hurley, you may remember, represented this country in China from the early 1940s and until 1945. After Hurley's return to this country in 1945, Gen. George C. Marshall was sent to China where he stated he "wiped out 39 nationalist divisions with the stroke of a pen."

Hurley maintains that China was turned over to the communists by the second article of the Yalta secret agreement signed Feb. 11, 1945.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, during his last days, entered into the Yalta agreement with Joseph Stalin. That stalwart champion of the West, Winston Churchill, was reported to have been snubbed at that meeting.

Hurley said the second article provided that "the former rights of Russia violated by the treacherous attack of Japan in 1904 shall be restored."

The rest is history. Russian troops rolled in Manchuria after V-E Day. The US pinched off aid to Chiang and the Nationalist government of China was pushed off the mainland.

The name of Pat Hurley appearing in the news brought back memories. We handled the general's plane by radio from a point near Cairo in Egypt until we turned it over to Casa Blanca control.

We shall never forget the brass breathing down our necks in that little radio shack almost 17 years ago.

We accepted the general's plane just north of Cairo. For some reason Algiers radio couldn't work it and we were stuck with a VIP clear across the northern tier of Africa. "You are cleared to Casa Blanca control," were some of the most fervent words we ever spoke.

Mention For Gail Cox

Tommy Triplett of Claude was a Monday visitor in the home of the Arvin Triplets.

compared to that calm, ripe wholesome wisdom of yours. "Most of all I want to confess my worst sin against you. It was the feeling I had that you 'did not understand.'"

"When I look back over it now, I know that you did understand. You understood me better than I did myself. Your wisdom flowed around mine like the ocean around an island.

"And how patient you were with me. How full of long suffering and kindness. And how pathetic were your efforts to get close to me, to win my confidence, to be my pal.

"I wouldn't let you. I couldn't. What was it held me aloof? I don't know. But it was tragic -- that wall that rises between a boy and his father, and their frantic attempts to see through it, and climb over it.

"I wish you were here, across the table from me for an hour, so that I could tell you now that there is no wall any more; I understand you now, Dad, how I love you, and now I wish I could go back to be your boy again.

"I know now, how I could make you happy every day. I know how you felt.

"Well, it won't be long, Dad, 'til I am over, and I believe you will be the first to take my hand and take me up the farther slope. And I'll put in the first thousand years or so making you realize that not one pang or yearning you spent on me was wasted. It took a good many years for this prodigal son -- and all sons are in a measure prodigal -- to come to himself, but I've come. I see it all now.

"I know that the richest, most priceless thing on earth, and the least understood, is the mighty love and tenderness and craving to help which a father feels toward his boy. For I have a boy of my own.

"And it is he that makes me want to go back to you and get down on my knees to you.

"Up there somewhere in the silence, hear me, Dad, and believe me."

Just Sort Of...

I'm a Chili Head, and I take my Chili-spooning seriously--and hot.

This, mind you, from a boy who grew up in Louisiana on black-eyed peas and rice, and mustard greens and corn bread.

Looking back, those were pretty poor pickings, considering lots of folks knew the joys of Chili even in my knicker-and-cap days.

I was introduced to Chili on a muggy July 11, 1953. I was hooked long before I scraped the bottom of my first bowl.

Since then, that date commands as much attention in my house as my getting-married anniversary. I must admit, though, Mary Jean fought it for a spell, but she was whipped before you can say, "dip me up another bowl."

Now let it be understood right off that we Chili Heads are a devoted, dedicated group.

We have the waiter scurrying for second helpings while the other people are still arguing over whether they want their sirloin strips well-done, medium-well, medium, medium-rare, rare, or even extra-rare. Or not cooked at all, just served with Band-Aids.

Steak people have decisions to make.

Not so with us Chili Heads. You accept it either straight, or with beans. It's that uncomplicated.

In Dallas, I joined up with the city's most exclusive club--The Chili Appreciation Society (International).

We would have a get-together whenever we got the craving, and discuss the merits of our life's sustenance.

It's an elegant group, all men. Not even a women's auxiliary. We even frowned upon--if not completely ignore--Chili which has been tampered with by a lady cook.

George Haddaway, the most rabid of them all, is our Leader, the Chief Chili Head. Ted Maloy, the second most rabid of them all, is the Number Two Man, the Chief Taster.

What respect those gentlemen have for Chili. And we've got a motto, a satisfying slogan, written by the late and great Joe Cooper, to wit:

"The aroma of good Chili should generate rapture akin to a lover's kiss."

Now ain't that just beautiful poetry?

The CASI is a dues-less outfit.

But membership does carry considerable responsibility, and there are a couple of rigid requirements.

A squirt of catsup in a steaming bowl is contrary to all regulations. Time was when a lesser offense would cost a man 30 lashes.

If you sashay into a Chili Parlor, and the Chili doesn't measure up, then you must either:

1. Aim your bowl--filled, of course--at the ceiling, so other transient and unsuspecting Chili heads can see the evidence and not compound a felony by ordering up.

2. Get a gun, march briskly into the cooking room, hold the gun at the cook's head, and, generously, give him a catcher's choice--either make him eat the stuff, or blast him dead off.

I reckon you'll agree us Chili Heads aren't to be fiddled with.

ent site (Canyon Junior High School property).

"But," he added, "there's too much traffic there already to cause accidents."

Clayton Shiver, an architect from South Amarillo, told the board he estimated paving costs would be about the same at both proposed sites.

He gave a "curbstone" guess of $12,808 at Twenty-eighth Street and $13,089 at Fifteenth Street.

In other action, the board okayed a retirement age for teachers in the Canyon Independent School District.

"All employees . . . shall retire at the end of the fiscal year in which they reach their sixty-fifth birthday," the regulation read. "This regulation shall become effective September 1, 1964."

The board also agreed to the City's paving assessment program on Ninth Avenue. The cost will be $3,802.

Paving

The first payment will be due within 10 days of the project's completion. The balance will be due in four yearly installments.

The "time-pay" plan will carry seven per cent interest. Anderlitch told the Commission his next step is to contact the property owners face-to-face and again explain the project.

Randall GOP Names Chiefs

The Randall County Republican convention will be held in the Courthouse here at 7:30 p.m. May 12.

The Executive Committee met in the home of John Kenehan in Amarillo recently and approved temporary chairmen for county precincts as follows: Paul Summers, 13; Fletcher Sims, 16; John McBride, 1; and Harold J. Prichard, 17.

Precinct convetions will be held at all polling places after the polls close on May 5.

Mrs. Pat Sharp of Gustine, Texas, is a visitor in the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Knox. Also, Buddy Knox, and his wife and son, were recent visitors in their parents home while they were en-route from Oregon to Macon, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Butler of Claude were Sunday evening visitors in the Arvin Triplett home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Tilcheck of Hereford were visitors in the Arvin Triplett home on Thursday evening.

Haley

accused Haley of violating Federal wheat acreage regulations. In 1956 it charged he planted wheat on 43 acres without a Federal allotment.

Federal District Judge T. Whitfield Davidson of Dallas held that Haley didn't owe the $506.11 penalty sought by the government.

The U.S. Supreme Court reversed Judge Davidson's decision. Judge Davidson, in a Feb. 3, 1962, subsequent decision, held the high court didn't have jurisdiction in the case, since it first should have been presented to the Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans.

"By taking this (current) action," he added, "they are seeking to embarrass me and save their political cohorts on the state payroll in Austin."

Sewerage

He said the system has a number one priority for expansion projects in the City.

"What would it do to developers who wanted to build 20--40--or 50 homes here?" Pete Cowart asked.

"We'd have to get busy and serve them," Mayor Lowes answered.

Present City policy prohibits its sewer lines to points outside the City limits.

"It makes us look kind of silly to beat the drums for Canyon," Cowart said, "and then when we get someone to march to those drums, to have to quit."

Jerry LaGrone said "we ought to try to help him (Neal) when he comes to Canyon."

"We can be real proud that we have that (sewerage) problem," Troy Martin said. "It proves we are growing."

Also attending the meeting were Joe Gidden, Carroll Vaughan, Jim Christopher and Roland Black, Chamber manager.

Screw-Worm

flies in the area when they mature, he added, and the flies produce infertile eggs.

That method was first used on the island of Curacao, off the coast of Venezuela, in 1955.

"Within five months," the county agent said, "the screw-worm population had been eradicated -- and remains so to this day."

Normally, flies winter in deep south Texas, southern New Mexico, Arizona and California.

Brazzil said a barrier 100 miles wide will be maintained along the fringes of Mexico for the next two years.

"That," he added, "will keep migration from occurring."

The extra cold weather in January virtually eliminated all flies from Texas, Brazzil said, adding:

"In addition to maintaining a high sterile fly population in this area, all cattle leaving the counties south of San Antonio are being inspected for worm cases. They must not carry screw worms or eggs to be eligible to leave this area."

Randall County producers are urged to report all cases of screw-worms to Brazzil. Special glass vials are available for submitting a sample number of larvae to the laboratory for diagnosis. That way, new areas of infestation can be located and treated.

"Livestock producers are highly optimistic the year 1962 may be the first year they will not have to doctor a case of screw-worms in livestock," Brazzil said.

'Tour Of Paris' Is Spotlited At Fashion Show Tuesday

The Junior Women's Book Club, in collaboration with the McDonald Shop and H.R.'s Florist provided a tour of Paris--fashion wise--for women of this area on Tuesday evening.

The style show was held at the High School auditorium at 8 p.m. and the stage was effectively decorated with floral and greenery arrangements.

The French setting was provided with a side-walk cafe and wrought iron furniture.

Fashion narration was done by Debra MacDonald Davenport and the floral accents were described by H.R. Fulton.

Fashion Divisions ranged from sleep and play wear through summer and Easter styles, on to formal and after-five wear. The climax of the show was a wedding scene, decorated with votary candles and white stock, to focus all eyes on the bride gown in white lace and silk organza and a chapel train.

Entertainment was varied during 3 short intermissions and included vocal renditions by the Viscounts, accompanied by Karen Erwin, and two songs by baritone Jerry Nichols accompanied by Pat Morgan. Mrs. Charles Brasher, soprano sang two favorites, accompanied by Mrs. Leon Trekel.

Door prizes were awarded as gifts by business firms in town, and every guest was allowed to select a fresh carnation from lovely colored bouquets as they came in the door and each was given a small bottle of cologne from the MacDonald Shop as they entered the auditorium.

DKG's Meet On WT Campus

Pi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met in the Fine Arts Building of West Texas College on Sat., March 17, 1962, Mrs. Madge Culbertson, President, presiding.

A splendid program, "Exploring New Trends in Art and Music," was introduced by Mrs. Earline Morman, of Canyon.

Miss Elsa Porter's Mu Phi

Epsilon Sorority presented the following musical selections: Lullaby (The Consul) Menotti, Linda Adams, Mezzo-soprano; Holiday for Pedals, Young, Elva Siburt, organ; A Spirit Flower, Campbell - Tipton, Milla Beth Van Dever, mezzo-soprano; Concerto for Horn, Second movement, Herman, Ruth Ann Bedford, french horn; Hello (The Telephone), Menotti, Lannell Blanton, soprano; Prelude on "Brother James' Air," Wright, Joan Wallace, organ.

Miss Claudia Neeley spoke most informatively on abstract-expressionism, abstract - impressionism, and realism trends of art today. She illustrated her points by presenting prints of drawings by modern artists.

Attractive refreshments in the St. Patrick's Day motif were served in the lounge of the Fine Arts Building by Mesdames Grace Knighton, Mary McBroom, Ocoee Holt and Misses Wilma Hixson, Edna Graham, and Mary Carter.

Mother And Daughters Partipate In Banquet At Church

A Mother and Daughter Banquet was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church on Friday evening, March 16 at 7 o'clock.

The tables were decorated in green and white and the theme of the program was "Through the Looking Glass". The Men's Fellowship Class served the meal and wore white chef's coats.

The Invocation was given by Mrs. Newton Starnes and a welcome by Mrs. Glen Gardner, president of WSCS.

A number of awards were made pertaining to mothers and daughters. They were as follows:

Oldest Mother present--Mrs. W.W. Hungate
Youngest Mothers present--Mrs. Bill Urban and Mrs. Jerry Parker

Mother with the most daughters present was Mrs. Lowell Johnston with daughters Ann, Debbie, Carlotta, Nicci and Deldra.

Four generations present were Mrs. J.A. Wiseman, her daughter Olga Seals, Mrs. Seal's daughter, Mrs. P.H. Woolsey, and Paula Woolsey. Songs to remember were those in which the audience could participate, and were led by Mrs. Aven Lair, accompanied by Lynn Larson. Readings were given by Mrs. R.D. Lowry, entitled "The Inventor's Wife" and "On the Stars".

An important feature of the evening's entertainment was a Style Show featuring clothes of By-Gone Years. It was moderated by Mrs. Craig Johnson. Virginia Crounse modeled a black crepe dress belonging to Mrs. Floyd Tomlinson, and worn to the Inaugural Ball of Gov. Jester, in the period clothes from 1940 to 1950. Also in the 1940 to 1950 division, Mrs. Eddie Holcomb modeled a white satin wedding dress and head piece belonging to Mrs. A.W. Lair. Mrs. Murphy White modeled a crepe dress and matching accessories that was in her trousseau. Linda Troth wore a suit belonging to Mrs. Frank Bergert in 1948.

Retreating in time to the period from 1930 to 1940, Nancy Davis displayed a black crepe dress and blue velvet beret owned by Mrs. Jeannette Robinson.

The 1920 to 1930 clothing division was introduced by Pam Hadley wearing a black crepe dress belonging to Mrs. R.A. Bellah, mother-in-law of Mrs. Alfred Bellah. Wearing a dress of Brown chiffon lent by West Texas State College, was Barbara Meyers. The green chiffon crepe dress and velvet cape modeled by Mrs. Alfred Bellah belonged to Mrs. C.A. Murray and had been used at many college functions during these years.

Mrs. J.C. Bellah was reminiscent of the 1910 to 1920 period when she wore a white organza and poplin dress belonging to her mother Mrs. Florence Brown Zimmerman.

D'Lynn Bellah modeled a pre-teen dress belonging to her grand-mother Mrs. Alfred Bellah between 1900 and 1910. Ada Busted wore a mother-Hubbard dress and bonnet, also a possession of Mrs. Bellah's during the same time period.

A teen-agers dress of voile print, another of Mrs. Bellah's was shown by Lynn Larson. A Bridesmaids dress of rose wool was modeled by Joyce Nitengale, and was lent to Mrs.

G.A. Collins by her mother Mrs. C.E. McPherson to be used in the 1800 to 1900 division. An 1895 voile print with lace trim, belonging to Mrs. Gordon Cummings, was worn by Lynn Stevens. A dark green faille, designed by Mrs. Ida Lin-nager and made in Berne Switzerland, and now owned by Mrs. Frank Begert was modeled by Mrs. Piner Stevens.

For the time period from 1880 to 1890 a dress was modeled by Mrs. L.H. Brotherton and owned by one of her relatives in her trousseau; another gown of white voile, also in the Brotherton family, was worn by Jan. Mrs. A.W. Lair, wearing a dress made by Mrs. Ed Sawyer of Knox City, played an auto harp, designed and made in 1876.

A doll, dressed as a baby in a dress of tucked lace, was displayed by Lynn Stevens. The dress belonged to Mrs. L.H. Brotherton, and a cap, worn by Charles Wilkinson in 1908 was also on the doll. A Bi-low china doll with celluloid hands and cotton stuffed body was shown by Jan Brotherton. It wore a 54 inch length dress, tucked and embroidered, belonging to the family of C.E. McPherson of Amarillo, mother of Mrs. G.A. Collins. It was shown by Jan Brotherton. Another doll, belonging to the daughters of the J.C. Bellahs was displayed by Nancy Davis. The doll was dressed in a dress of brown twill and braid which had once been a part of a dress owned by their grand-mother, Mrs. Florence Brown Zimmerman.

The banquet was termed a success by the capacity crowd that attended.

Mrs. J. C. Bellah models her mother's white organza dress and pantaloons worn during the early 1900's in the fashion show "Through the Looking Glass" held at the Methodist Church last Friday night.

Rotary Club Program

Farmers and Ranchers Day will be observed at the Canyon Rotary Club's regular meeting Tuesday with Frank Kimbrough, athletic director at West Texas State College, in charge.

by Mary Caballero

Since the big rush to buy the Project Mercury, U.S. Man In Space stamp, we have become aware that stamps can certainly be of great interest to everyone.

In an article by Ervino Metzl for American Artist the part that art plays in the designing of a stamp is brought out. He says, "When you drop a letter in a mailbox, it may not occur to you that a work of art is involved . . . but it is, in the stamp which tells Uncle Sam that you have paid for the postal service he is about to furnish.

Postage stamps are a relatively new form of art, about which artist know little, and the public knows less. In fact postage stamps didn't come into existence until 1840 when Great Britain printed the first ones. It wasn't until 1847 that the United States began issuing them, and for the next one hundred years or so, the designing of the United States postage stamps was the monopoly of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. Their names were never made public, nor was there much reason why they should be. Other countries issued postage stamps that were far more advanced in the realm of art than ours were. This was because other nations saw, long before we did, the importance of enlisting their best artists for the job. We've come around to doing that, too; and our postage stamps of the last few years are infinitely superior to our earlier issues. We have realized that a postage stamp can be beautiful as well as useful."

When an artist was required to put across a message on a postage stamp that could be put across on a poster, the idea had to be a little different. What you could see in a moment on a poster, was not always so quickly recognized on a small stamp.

On March 26, 1957, Postmaster General Summerfield appointed a seven-member Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee to advise the Post Office on the subject matter, design, production, and issuance of postage stamps. Significantly, three of the seven members of the committee are artists. This takes care of the esthetic side. The other members of the committee are outstanding philatelists. (A Philatelist is a stamp collector, and so many millions of people collect stamps these days that philately has become "Big Business." This means that millions of stamps are bought every year by people who simply collect them and never use them for postage.

Sales of postage stamps to collectors have become such an important source of revenue to the Post Office that it rarely orders fewer than 120 million four-cent stamps of a single design printed. A good half of these may never be used in the mails, but the two million dollars or more the Post Office will collect for them goes part way toward making up the Post Office's usual operating deficit.

Mr. Metzl says that the latest of these stamps measures only 0.84 x 0.98 inches, and that even the larger commemorative are 1.44 x 0.84 inches so that you can understand the designer's problem.

Postmasters tell us that women and children like the green and red stamps best, and that women and children are their most frequent customers.

There are three different techniques used in reproducing the artist drawing for our stamps: 1. Pure line engraving. 2. Line engraving with tones of gray. 3. Line engraving and halftone. Intaglio is used to discourage counterfeiting.

After a long drawn-out process of tempering the steel and making a die the stamp is ready to be printed, but then another long process is accomplished when the rolls of pre-gummed paper are run through precision machines for special coloring. The serial numbers on the margins to identify the plates are also valued by collectors. The sheets are then perforated by a special process in which an electric eye positions them with superhuman precision, so that the perforations will be made between the stamps and not on them.

"Next time you put a stamp on a letter consider all this and marvel at the creation of that little stamp, whether you like it or not."

On March 25, the Amarillo College Art Department will sponsor Ruth Siegel in an exhibition of paintings. This will mark the opening of their Fine Arts Festival. The showing will be in the Student Building at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Sanders Passes Away In Amarillo

First grade pupils study numbers and numbers relationships at Canyon Elementary School.

Hinders Has Field Day Reports Mailed By City C of C

Dairymen from Oklahoma, New Mexico and the Texas Panhandle attended the field day featuring the conformation or appearance of cattle.

Hinders said cattle are graded between 65 and 95 with the national average 80. The Randall County dairyman had 31 of 40 head to exceed the national average.

A dairy specialist, Roger Denney of Fredericksburg, Md., made the type classification on the 40 head of registered Holsteins.

Richmond Hales, another

Canyon dairyman, received a similar rating on his herd.

The West Side Home Demonstration Club invites all High School Students to attend a party that will be held on Friday, March 23 from 7:30 until 11 o'clock in the Livestock Building in Canyon.

There will be games, ballroom and square dancing. Any who have records are asked to please bring them.

The party is being sponsored by the adult members of the Home Demonstration Club.

Reports by work committees of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce have been mailed to C. of C. members.

They are from the Agriculture Development Committee, Roger Gist, Jr., chairman; Business Development Committee, H.R. King, chairman; Community Development Committee, Jerry LaGrone, chairman; Education Committee, Huelyn Laycock, chairman; and Industrial Development Committee, Joe Gidden, chairman.

Numbers Taught In 1st Grade

(The following article was prepared by Mrs. Lee Reeves, first grade teacher at the Canyon Elementary School.)

Teachers of first grade children realize that six-year-olds are ready the first day of school to learn more about numbers and number relationships.

We find, therefore, in the first grade a carefully planned program of instruction — one that will assist the child in discovering and understanding something of the interdependence and the orderliness of our number system.

Realizing that discovery is of prime importance the teacher leads the child to "find out" for himself, to build concepts and meanings.

He is given many opportunities for discovering the meaning of numbers, both with concrete objects and through semi concrete experiences with sensory materials.

The semi-concrete experiences lead gradually but definitely to experiences which are abstract. A variety of concrete

Parents Club Holds Dinner

The Canyon High School Band Parents Club presented a banquet for members of the High School Band on Saturday night. Approximately 150 guests attended the banquet which was held in the school cafeteria. Girls from the 7th and 8th grade band assisted in serving. The tables were decorated with shamrocks and other appointments to carry out a St. Patrick's Day theme.

Mrs. E.J. Larson, band club president, was in charge of the program. Miss Lynell Blanton and Mrs. John Robert Wheelock presented a program of vocal selections, accompanied by Mary Ann Wheelock. The high school stage band played instrumental music as a part of the program, and a dance was held in the common's area following the banquet.

and semi-concrete materials to be used in making abstract numbers meaningful, is as important to the classroom teacher as is a variety of reading materials for developing reading skills, or a picture file for use in developing social studies and science concepts.

Plans For Cancer Crusade Outlined

Plans for the 1962 Cancer Crusade opening April 15 were outlined last week to the board of directors of the Randall County Chapter of the American Cancer Society.

Tom Williams of Amarillo, field representative for District 3-N, spoke before 20 persons at the West Texas State College cafeteria.

He told the group of six one-hour TV programs scheduled on Channel 7 in Amarillo, which will feature 15 celebrities endorsing the Cancer Crusade. The first will be April 1 at 8 p.m.

Williams reminded the directors Randall County's goal for 1962 is $2700.

Mrs. Joseph Findley, campaign chairman, announced general plans and names of area chairmen who will conduct the canvass.

"Town and Country Play Night" will be held April 28. Canyon Jaycee-ettes are selling tickets. Games of bridge, 88 and 42 will be played and door prizes will be given.

Light refreshments will be served by members of the committee. Mrs. Thornton Dewey is chairman.

Mrs. Troy Martin, publicity director, said recordings by well-known musicians are available to groups wishing to support the crusade. The records are 33 1/3 rpm and consist of 20-second announcements, 1-minute announcements, 5-minute interludes and various ranges of testimonials. They include such artists as Richard Rodgers, Mary Martin, Paul Newman and others.

Dr. Thomas MacOwan, president, presided.

Mothers-In-Law

Canyon Mothers-In-Law Club held a covered dish luncheon and an all day quilting in the home of Mrs. J.C. Dowd last Thursday. Fifteen members were present.

Attending were Mesdames Mary Burtz, O.B. Vaughn, T.T. Fain, I.M. Stein, Laura Duckworth, Pearl Woodfin, C.W. Dunn, Lewis Harvey, Hattie Brasuel, J.L. Heim, W.L. Wester, W.G. Rose, J.C. Dowd, and J.N. Seary and R.D. Lowery.

Major and Mrs. Carol S. Meek, and children, Debra and Jim, are at home after a four day visit to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Major Meek will be assigned to this post in August as a student in the United States Army Command and General Staff school.

Texas leads the nation in motion picture production.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. ORA JONES

The passing of Sister Jones has left a vacuum in the lives of those who knew and loved her. Her sterling life exemplified christianity beautifully. Her home was a spiritual sanctuary for God seven days a week. Her Bible was her treasured possession and she loved it above all earthly things. She was a devout, pure and Godly saint. We feel her passing has added another lovely flower to bless God's summer land of rest. She is gone but not forgotten.

P-TA Meetings To Be Held In 3 Schools

Excellent led by Mrs. C. C. Callarman and Mrs. Ples Harper, 100 mothers, fathers, and teachers gathered in the high school auditorium on March 15 to decide what kind of parent-teacher organization they would be willing to support. Should PTA be abandoned because of lack of interest? Should there be a drastic revision in the whole organization of parent-teacher relationship? First, the results of the questionnaire were presented. There were 774 replies sent in by the parents of Canyon two weeks ago. The results were as follows: 205 were duplicates.

1. Do you want to continue the PTA as it is now? 175--Yes 96 said they would help 14 said they would be officers 65 said they would be unable to help

2. Do you want to divide the PTA into smaller groups for each school with fewer officers? 130--Yes 80 said they would help 50 said they would be officers

3. Do you want an entirely different kind of parent-teacher and parent-parent relationship? 38--Yes 28 said they would help 10 said they would be officers. 137 persons are not interested in any kind of an organization. 26 want a change but are unable to help.

22 are new people. 38 had fine comments but no preference. Short speeches were given by Mrs. Robert White, Mr. Zoe Henry, and Mr. Joe Gibson, pro and con. Then excerpts from the comments on the questionnaires were read by members spotted throughout the auditorium. There was some pertinent discussion which culminated in the Reverend Dale Harter's making a motion which passed unanimously. The motion was:

"I move that we continue in the state and national organization of the PTA and adopt a room representative basis for our local PTA government; (2) that we go to the three different schools for our PTA meeting next year on a rotating basis with the program geared to the needs and interests of the schools involved; (3) that we

ST. PATRICK'S DAY, '52

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Truax and daughter, Katherine, attended the Shamrock St. Patrick's Day Celebration at Shamrock Monday. To Truax goes the credit for having originated the Shamrock St. Patrick's Day Celebration while he was director of the Shamrock High School Band in 1937.

WEATHER, '52

On Sunday, March 9, G. W. Webb, local weather observer, reported the first hail of the season in this vicinity. This happened on Sunday and on the following Wednesday, 40 mile an hour winds stirred up a heavy cloud of dust all over the Plains.

PALO DURO PARK, '52

Attendance at the Palo Duro State Park is more than double that of last year, according to John McCarty, concessionaire. During last week attendance at the Park numbered 2,200, bringing the total to 16,000. Last year up to March 15, it had reached only 7,750.

P-TA MEETING, '52

Men's night for the local P-TA is to be observed Thursday, March 20. The men will fill all the positions and do the duties usually performed by the women. R. A. Selby, assistant superintendent, will be the speaker. He will discuss, "What a Good School Expects of its Community."

decide toward the end of that year if we want a separate PTA for each school."

After this decision was made, a slate of new officers was presented by Oscar Hinger, chairman of the nominating committee, and voted into office unanimously. The new officers are: President, Mrs. K. E. Hines; Vice President, Mrs. Troy Martin; Secretary, Mrs. Tony Dewey; Treasurer, Mr. Charles Peckenpaugh; Historian, Mrs. Bob Hall; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Dale Harter. These officers will go to work immediately with the help of the old officers to implement the Reverend Dale Harter's motion.

Rolling Along

Last year the P-TA Men's Night was considered a highlight of the year with 250 people attending.

MARCH 21, 1929 STOLEN CARS, '29

Four stolen cars have been recovered to their owners during the last few weeks through the efforts of Sheriff John Fry of Canyon.

CROP PROSPECTS, '29

Prospects for a good wheat crop this year were never better on the Plains, according to W. D. McGehee of Wayside.

PAVED HIGHWAY, '29

Randall County will have a paved highway from Amarillo to Happy within the coming year, it is indicated by the speed which is being made with the work all along the way. The Commissioners Court held a meeting Monday with property owners along the new route from Canyon to Happy, and while failing to reach an agreement for the price of the land, it is believed that the matter will be adjusted within a short while.

SPEED COP, '29

Frank Hicks has been elected speed cop for the city following the resignation of John Oliver who has held this position for the past two years.

KEISER HOME, '29

Mrs. C. O. Keiser has traded her house on Fifth Ave. for a home in Amarillo.

CHICKENS, '29

Chickens are forbidden to run at large, and the owners may be subject to a fine, according to a statement of Harvey Cash, city secretary, yesterday.

ESCAPEE, '29

Ben Mason, who escaped from the Randall County jail more than a year ago while under a two-year sentence for larceny, was returned to county officers last Friday from Denver. He had been at large for 14 months when arrested.

MARCH 19, 1909 RURAL DELIVERY, '09

On Monday morning of this week, Postmaster Hunt of this city received the final confirmation of the establishment of the first Rural Free delivery in the Panhandle. The route is to begin at the post office in this city and run west, thence south and then back to the city and the actual delivery is to begin on May 1.

EQUALIZATION, '09

The City Council has appointed as a board of equalization for the present tax assessment, Dr. J. M. Black, J. C. Pipkin, and L. E. Cowling. They held their first meeting Wednesday afternoon and expect to get down to actual labor in a few days.

BUY AT HOME, '09

Last Saturday, we published an article expressing the belief that our readers could save money and besides leave the profit from the sale in circulation at home if when in need of a stove or range, they would buy of the home dealer in preference to traveling agents. We also hinted that a certain agent then in Miami had unlimited gall. The aforementioned agent got his dander up, visited us, made a little pugilistic exhibition and threatened that if we made further reference of the matter, he would larrupus good.

DOLLAR CLUB, '09

The citizens of Des Moines, Iowa, recently organized a "Dollar Club" with a capitalization of $10,000, which shall have for its object the checking of the vast immigration from Iowa to the Panhandle of Texas. They expect to educate their young men that dealing in Texas land is a shaky proposition.

It's Phillips Over Akron

It was a wild, run-and-shoot affair.

It was a basketball get-together marked by rugged rebounding and great hunks of physical contact.

It was, in short, a big night at the West Texas State College Fieldhouse, in which the Phillips 66ers outscored the Akron Goodyears, 120-115.

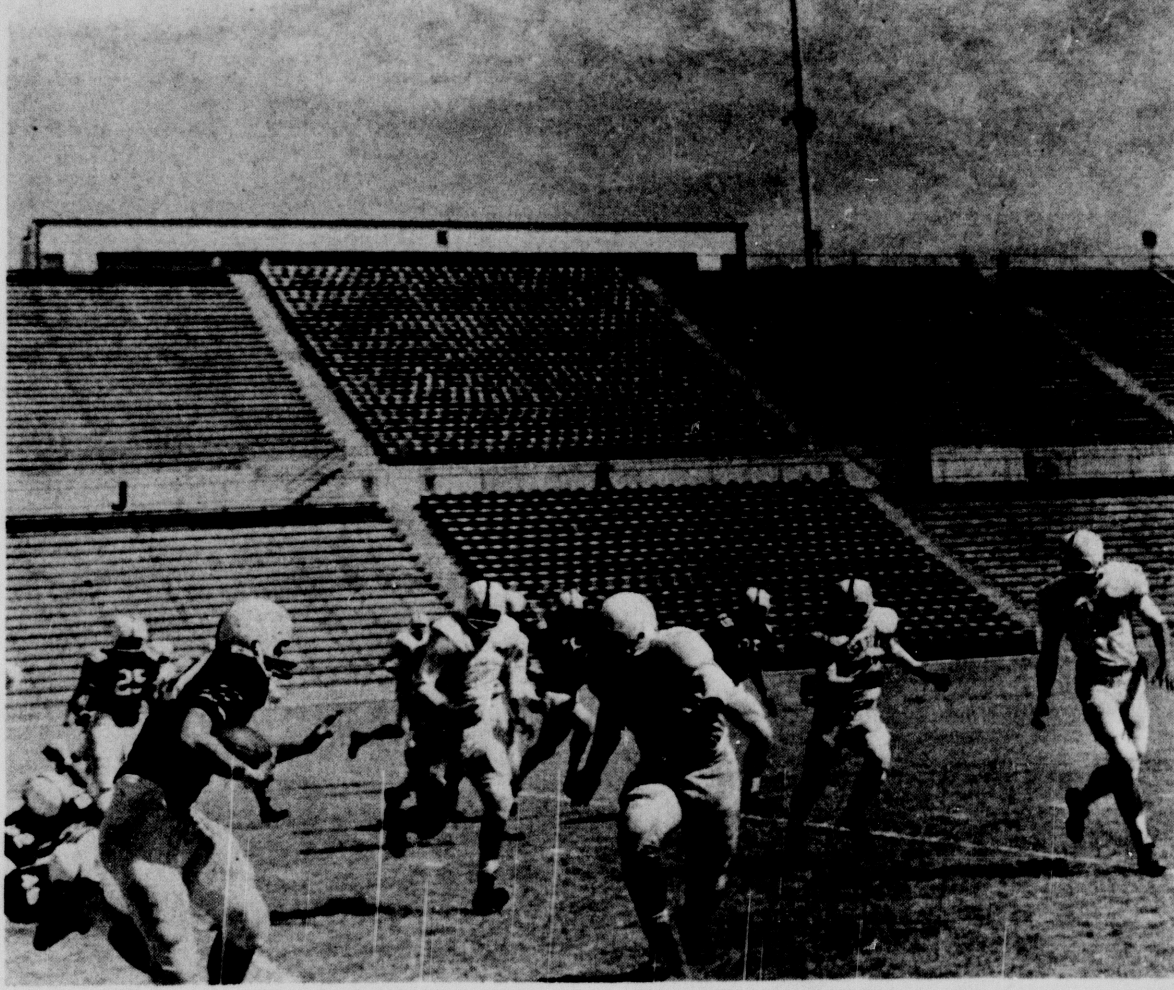

The AAU teams played for the benefit of Amarillo Regional Hearing and Speech Foundation, sponsored by the Amarillo Rotary Club.

Phillips was out front most of the game, using a well-balanced attack to widen the margin in the final two quarters. In pulling off the victory, the big boys from Bartlesville, Okla., evened the season series, two-all.

Denny Price, Phillips guard, used a three-day pass from the Army to good advantage and scored 15 points. He was also a defensive standout.

For Goodyear, Pete McCaffrey was the man with the deadly shooting eye. He poured through 35 points on long arching shots from outside.

Phillips held a 28-22 first quarter lead and was ahead 53-50 at halftime. The 66ers were out front at the third quarter mark, 90-83.

Jerry Logan, 175-pound halfback from Graham, packs the ball on another long gain for the "Reds." Action was Saturday in the West Texas State College spring training scrimmage. Russell Mundy, 207-pound fullback from Harrisburg, Pa., gets set to make the tackle. Coach Kerbel will send his units through a similar workout at 2 p.m. Saturday at Buffalo Stadium.

Loman Jones' Locker Room

Spring is upon us. And with the change of season, there is a change in athletics. This zippy-do-da weather not only brings out buds but also Toms, Dicks and Janes.

A trip to the golf course, tennis court, or sandlot baseball diamond reveals milling throngs enjoying the great outdoors.

An air of optimism aligns itself with spring.

Such a philosophy might be far fetched among West Texas State football players. Their days are presently filled with studies and afternoon diets of two-hour head-knocking sessions. The warmer weather the more uncomfortable the drills. (Wonder how many wish they had taken up the horn.)

Saturday's scrimmage was rugged. Even though Coach Kerbel expressed dissatisfaction, he said he would wait and see films.

The first two teams were pitted against the third and fourth units. For the average spectator the scrimmage probably seemed unfair for the whites. But for those who realize the players are after scholarships, the scrimmage had a different meaning.

Most of the boys on the out-manned white team were freshmen and transfer students trying to make next season's squad. And what better way to test their mettle than to pit them against last year's regulars. If there is any great talent among the newcomers, it will make itself evident in such workouts. Kerbel and his staff know what they're doing. Even the new players say, "We can't beat Tech looking like this."

Speaking of WT coaches, they make workouts colorful. Last week, a linebacker fouled up and complained he didn't know who had the ball. Coach Wilhelm quipped, "If you don't know whether he's got the ball or not, knock him down and search him."

On another occasion players were heaping platitudes on a teammate only to hear, "Shut up, we don't have any yelling section."

Basketball took on aspects of the rough-and-tumble last week in the Phillips-Akron game. The shoving, elbowing, holding antics were out of place. Had both teams held a vigorous session of head-on-tackling before the game, they might have entertained with better basketball. As it was, the contest could have been confused with boxing, football or "kick the can".

There is no denying the abundance of talent on both squads, and it's natural for such well-matched rivals to have quick-burning fuses. Too, it's easy enough to understand how the extra-long season would wear nerves to the "quick".

Referees became chief targets of verbal barrages. During one of the more heated moments, a harrassing fan let loose in a hog-calling, E-flat voice, "Hey, blind Tom, watch 50 holding!" Seconds later 50 fouled, and the same voice heckled, "Thank you."

Jerry Richardson, 180-pound halfback from Canyon, sacks up the ball in a falling catch. Earl West, 195-pound halfback from Orange, N. J., puts in an appearance to make certain Richardson is stopped. The "Red" team, WT's first and second units, beat the "Whites," third and fourth strings in a rugged scrimmage to end the second week of spring training.

College Golf Team Plays Eastern Today

West Texas State College golf coach Huelyn Laycock will send his team against Eastern New Mexico at 1 p.m. today on the Amarillo Country Club Course.

The WT foursome is composed of Kenneth Barnett, Danny Neese, John Sligh and Jimmy Holmes.

In previous games, the squad has beaten New Mexico State and Amarillo College. They have been defeated by Texas Western and Frank Phillips of Borger. The West Texas team also participated in the Southwestern Recreational Tournament in Fort Worth.

Laycock said his boys have continued to show improvement even though they lack experience. Holmes, a sophomore, is the only returning letterman.

In remaining games this month, WT will meet New Mexico State and Texas Western the 30-31 at Amarillo.

On April 5, 6 & 7 WT linksmen will invade Shawnee, Okla., to participate in the Oklahoma intercollegiate Golf tournament. April 11, they play Panhandle A&M of Guymon, Okla., in an out-of-town contest. A&M will play a return match April 16 at Amarillo.

May 1 will kick off competition against Eastern N.M., at Portales, with the Abilene Tournament May 3, 4, and 5. The college season will close May 10, 11, and 12 at Tempe of Arizona, in the Border Conference Tournament.

Church Fetes Football Team

West Texas State College athletes and coaches will be guests at a hamburger supper Sunday at the First Methodist Church.

The 5:30 p.m. fete is sponsored by a committee of men and women from the church.

Wives of players and coaches have been invited.

WT Track Season To Open April 14

West Texas State College will open a five-meet track season April 14.

Coach Howard White said the first meet will take the Buff cindersmen to El Paso for the annual Texas Western Relays.

They will compete in the McMurry Invitational at Abilene April 21 and the following week they tangle with New Mexico State, U. of New Mexico and Denver University in a quadrangular meet at Albuquerque.

The lone home meet is scheduled May 5, when the Buffs host Eastern New Mexico, McMurry, and Highlands University in a four-way affair.

The Buffs will close the season at Tempe, Ariz., May 11-12, competing in the last Border Conference meet.

Here is the list of the 26 candidates seeking positions on the team:

Alvin Allsberry, hurdles; Bobby Arthur, sprints; Bill Bundy, discus-javelin; T. O. Calloway, sprints; Bobby Crewson, broad jump; Dick Cunningham, 880-mile; Leonard Graves, 440; Stan Joy, sprints; Kenneth Lane, mile; Richard Lazear, shot-discus; John LeBrasseur, sprints; Tommy Locke, hurdles-440; Wilton Manley, shot-discus; David McInturff, hurdles; Russell Mundy, javelin; Pete Pedro, sprints; Woody Prudo, sprints - hurdles; Bob Riley, 440; Bill Rogers, sprints-broad jump; Robert Sandlin, shot - discus; Arnold Skiles, hurdles; Bill Starkey, pole vault; Mike Stockard, broad jump; Keith Tyler, shot-discus; Earl West, hurdles; and Jay West, 440-880.

WT Women Win Shoot

West Texas State College's women's rifle team outshot a team from Oklahoma State University here Saturday, 1,468 to 1,444.

Mrs. Ivey Terry, WT coach, said the winners will shoot in matches March 30-31 at Texas Woman's University and Arlington State College.

Three WT riflemen tied for high series with 295 points out of a possible 300. They were Kay Balzer of Perryton, Pauline Sharp of Amarillo and Pat Rhodes of Stamford.

Also firing for WT were Betty Seljos of Denver City, Bonnie Witt of Perryton and Mary Brummett of Childress.

WT Tennis Match Set

West Texas State College's women's tennis squad, with a perfect record this year, meets McMurray College on the campus courts at 2 p.m. Saturday.

WT's three-member team whitewashed the Wayland College team in Plainview last Saturday. Previously, they whipped Amarillo College.

Playing for coach Mary Cooley are Minta McAninch, a senior from Merkel; Sharon Campbell of Wellington, a freshman; and Linda Robinson, a freshman from Dumas.

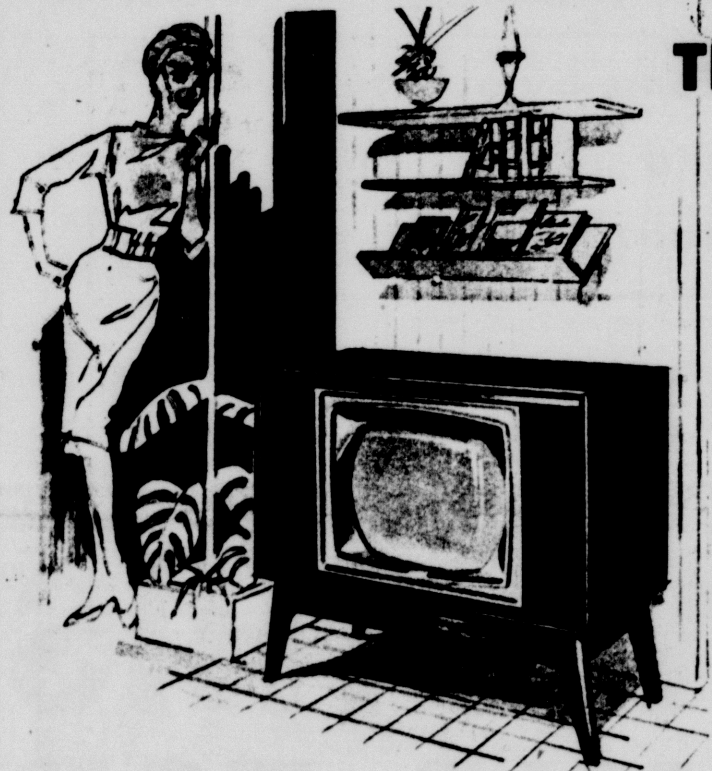

LOMAN JONES

Loman Jones, an all-district football player when he attended Brownfield High School, is the new sports editor of The Canyon News.

Jones, 27, also played basketball and ran track in high school and later played football for two years at San Angelo College, where he held a scholarship.

Jones, who has attended the University of Texas and Tech, formerly worked on the Brownfield News. He taught school for a year.

He is a senior at West Texas State College and is majoring in journalism.

"IT PAYS TO DEHORN EARLY"

In modern cattle raising, dehorning is a necessity. Horned cattle are expensive in the feed lot. They cause a great loss in expensive cuts of meat from gouges and bruises. Dehorned cattle feed out better than horned cattle, according to many experienced feeders.

The estimated 24-pound bobcat held by Floyd Thomas, left, and Bob Costley, was shot early Monday morning about 21 miles northeast of Canyon. The two men were on their way to feed cattle when they spotted it. Costley used a 22-caliber rifle.

Ronnie Harris, Canyon High School senior, shows the form which placed him first in the shot put at the Whirlwind Relays. The husky Harris also throws the discus. Coach Charles Chambliss, who works with the weight men, watches for flaws. The CHS track team failed to place in the West Texas Relays at Odessa.

Smith Seeks Votes Here

State Sen. Preston Smith of Lubbock, a candidate for lieutenant governor, said in Canyon last week Texas "must take action if it is to continue to grow and prosper."

Smith, who sought the office in 1950, when he placed third in a field of 12 candidates, pointed out in a prepared statement there is "more than one way Texas can overcome its financial problems without raising taxes."

"Our state, with all its natural resources, should attract many industries that would provide us with more income, which in turn provides more money for state government, without raising taxes," he said, adding:

"Texas must adopt a policy of selling itself as a good location with a good future for new industry, new people and new organizations that will provide new payrolls and better jobs for thousands of Texans."

Smith said Texas can keep its taxes down "by eliminating waste in government and by pursuing a serious program of growth and progress that will bring our state new business activity, new jobs and new hope for all Texas."

Bowling News

The West Texas State College bowling team went to Albuquerque over the week end to bowl in the New Mexico Invitational held at the University of New Mexico. New Mexico University won the team event with 2542. W. T. came in second with 2502. W. T. won the doubles match with 1162 rolled by Norman Tucek and Densil Lacy. In the singles event W. T. placed second with Lacy's 614. Lacy won the all events with 1680.

In the girls events West Texas placed second in team and doubles and third in singles.

The city associations annual city tournament starts April 7 and goes through April 14. Canyon has entered about 20 teams. The event is to be held at the Amarillo Bowl.

High Game and series were posted by Velton Sogee and Thelma Westfall. Velton rolled 157-187-279 for 623. Thelma had 206-178-198 for a 574 series.

Baritone Concert Will Close Series

THEODOR UPPMAN

American baritone Theodor Uppman will sing in Canyon High School auditorium Monday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. The recital will be the last this season by the Canyon Community Concert Association. It is expected to be the "grand finale" to a record-breaking series.

Theodor Uppman is typical of the trend Metropolitan stars now etch -- an excellent singing voice, physical attractiveness, and dramatic ability. His list of successes at the Metropolitan includes performances under Bruno Walter in "The Magic Flute," Pierre Monteux in "Pelleas et Melisande," Karl Boehm in "Don Giovanni," and in the two light operas, "La Perichole," and "Die Fledermaus."

Uppman is known to TV and radio audiences through his frequent appearances on the Voice of Firestone, Music for a Summer Night, the Bell Telephone Hour, and the Omnibus productions of "The Merry Widow" and "La Perichole."

Last season, he appeared in three Puccini operas: "Girl of the Golden West," "La Boheme" and "Madame Butterfly."

California-born, Uppman has sung four roles with the San Francisco Opera Company. His summer months are spent in diversified activities such as doing an all-Gershwin program in Honolulu, a Cole Porter Night at the Hollywood Bowl, a solo recital at Williams Bay, Wisc., "Carmen" with the Santa Fe Opera Company, and numerous leads in Central City, Colo., Opera Festival.

Uppman sang the title role in the world premiere of Benjamin Britten's opera, "Billy Budd," in Convent Garden, London, 1951-52. After that, his fame was assured.

The star introduced the role to America in 1952 with the NBC television opera theatre.

The soloist has studied at Philadelphia's Curtis Institute of Music, Stanford University and the University of Southern California. In 1947 he won the Atwater Kent Auditions and the Gainsborough Foundation Award. His musical career was interrupted by military service during World War II.

Uppman's attractive wife, Jean, also is from California. They have two children, Margaret and Michael. The family now lives on Long Island.

A reception for the artist will be held at the home of Mrs. James Murphy White, 2504 Twelfth Ave., immediately following the concert. All Association members are invited.

The Denison-Galveston segment of U. S. Highway 75 is the oldest road in Texas. Bids were taken in 1844.

NORTH RANDALL NEWS

The Henry Fowler family thoroughly enjoyed a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Fowler's son and daughter-in-law. They were Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Fowler from China Lake, California.

Mrs. Irvin Colwell from Petersburg, Ohio has been visiting the Harold Kerr family for about a week. Mrs. Colwell is Mrs. Kerr's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Gilbert and family recently moved from Western Avenue to Coulter Drive.

The people of Sundown Lane lost a wonderful neighbor but to a very good cause. Mrs. Gir-die Simpson decided to move to Orange, California and go into missionary work there. When leaving, her plans were to visit her daughter and family, the V.A. Shelton's (in Dallas) and her son and his family, the Charles Simpson's (in Carlsbad) before going on to California.

A friend of the C.G. Barger family was a guest in their home this past week. She was Mrs. Lillian Gibson from Page, Arizona. Mrs. Gibson was in Amarillo on business and spent a great deal of time with the Bargers.

Home on leave from the service is James Davis, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fowler. When James returns to duty, he will be shipped to Iwo Jima.

The Jack Worsham's had company last week-end. They were Mrs. Worsham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Hamm from Plainview.

Friends from Amarillo dropped by to visit the Charles Fowlkes family this past week-end and something very good came out of the visit! Mrs. Jerry Haynes wants to get into scout work and is very much interested in working with the North Randall County girls. It looks like our prayers have been answered! We gladly welcome her!

The leaders from the North Randall County Girl Scouts want to thank the girls in their troops for working so hard to make the cookie sale a great success within this area. THANKS MUCH!

Division Head Is Announced

Bob Clements of Amarillo has been appointed chairman of the Pattern Advance Division of the Symphonic Drama's fund campaign.

Wales Madden, Jr., general chairman, made the announcement at a meeting of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation.

A drive is underway to raise $350,000 for an outdoor theater at the base of a 600-foot bluff in Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

Clements is a prominent civic leader and retired businessman.

Losses from fire, storm, shipwreck or other casualty losses, and theft losses may be deducted on federal income tax returns under certain conditions.

Girls Set Fish Fry

Catfish rolled in corn meal and then fried to a tempting golden brown... a crisp tossed salad... a variety of appetizing relishes... cooked just-right beans... fluffy cornbread... freshly-brewed and steaming coffee... topped off with a slice of tasty cake.

Sound good? That's the menu the Rainbow girls will offer persons attending their fifth annual fish fry at the Canyon Elementary School cafeteria from 5:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

The price? Only a $1.00 for adults and just .50 cents for persons under 12. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Kenneth Clark of 1403 Seventh Ave.

Receipts will be used to defray costs of sending delegates to the Grand Assembly in Austin in June and to the Supreme Assembly in Chicago the following month.

Houston is the new cow capital of the U. S., with 105,000 head in Harris County.

Texas has never had an official mascot.

Dewey To Speak To Local Club

Thornton Dewey will address the Canyon Conservative Club's regular meeting at noon Thursday in the Legion Hall.

He will speak on "Growing Up in a Socialist Atmosphere." Last week, C. Don Hughes of Amarillo, an independent geology consultant, showed a series of color slides, with taped background music and narration, which he titles, "This is My Country."

Hughes took the pictures recently when he, his wife and sister toured New England.

Santa Fe Railway System's net income for 1961 rose to $54,850,383, a 6.3 per cent increase over the $51,596,697 earned in 1960, President Ernest S. Marsh reported.

FTA Article Is Published

Dr. Thomas D. MacOwan, associate professor of education at West Texas State College, is the author of an article appearing in the March issue of The Texas Outlook.

The name of the article is "FTA Conventions Prove Their Value," and is based on questionnaires sent to former Future Teachers of America members who attended a district meeting at WT in 1956.

CANYON BUSINESS REVIEW and BUYER'S GUIDE

Zac's Humble Service Station at 311 23 Street is in business to do business. Blake Zachry, owner, has made service his motto and intends to please his customers.

He has stocked EMSCO mufflers with a lifetime guarantee in the line of superior products. He also carries Atlas brand tires.

The muffler is a product of extensive research and experience in building better automotive mufflers. Rugged both in design and construction, it is made to outlast others. Zac said that the muffler costs no more than regular ones and is good for the life of the car.

The station, which has been run by Zachry shortly over a year, has a mechanic on duty from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. seven days a week.

The Humble firm also does minor and major tune-ups, balances wheels, and has pick up and delivery service.

There is the regular fixing and changing of flats, motor washes, washing and lubrication, waxing and polishing.

Two full-time employees, Sie Rogers and Danny Lee, are on duty.

Zac's gives Frontier stamps.

Week after week carefully tabulated figures published in "Automotive Market Reports" show that Chevrolet trucks are worth more in resale value.

why?

If you were a professional used truck buyer, why would you pay more for one make than another?

There may be several reasons, but among them would be:

1. A greater demand for the product

2. A more desirable product for resale

So if used Chevrolet trucks consistently bring higher prices at auctions all over the country, it means that their quality features pay off for you not only as long as you own them but also when you are ready to trade them—double-wall cabs, doors and side panels, roof insulation, select wood floors, reliable and economical engines, real rugged tailgates, a suspension system that helps prolong truck life.

See your Chevrolet dealer for a quality '62 Chevrolet Jobmaster truck.

"Automotive Market Reports" is a weekly authoritative wholesale publication which reports the average prices paid for used trucks and cars by professional buyers at auctions all over the U.S.

See your Chevrolet dealer for trucks that keep working and working and working and working!

Farm Talks Set Monday

Farm Legislation before Congress will be discussed in Amarillo Monday before a joint meeting of the Texas Association of Wheat Growers and the Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

The speakers will include Dr. John A. Schnitker of Washington, D. C., who will talk about the "Food and Agriculture Act of 1962."

Dr. Schnitker is an economic analyst on the staff of Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman.

The meeting, from 9 a.m. to noon at the Herring Hotel, will also hear Dr. J. Wayland Bennett. He is the head of the Department of Agricultural Economics at Texas Technological College in Texas Tech in Lubbock.

The Grain Sorghum association will hold its regular annual meeting at 1:30 p.m.

Article On Art

An article on encaustic painting by Mrs. Jan Heath, a West Texas State College graduate, has appeared in the current issue of School Arts Magazine.

Mrs. Heath is an instructor in interior design in the home economics department at Amarillo College.

by John Brazzil COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

Wesley Cox was elected to head up the screw-worm control program in Randall County. This election took place in the district courtroom in Canyon on Thursday night, March 15. About forty livestock producers gathered to hear details on the work now underway. Others to serve with Cox are: Fred Begert, Vice-chairman; Newton Crain, Secretary; and Roland Black, Treasurer. A slate of canvassers was appointed to solicit funds for the support of this work.

To date more than $1,600.00 have been contributed by livestock producers in Texas to eradicate the screw-worm menace.

During the first week in April a colored film will be available for use in Randall County to promote this program. It will be shown in Canyon and Uthman. Other communities may have meetings to allow producers to view a documented report of this work. Watch for the time and dates next week.

Cotton seed produced last year seems to have a low germination. Growers in Randall County are cautioned to pay close attention to the germination test on each bag of seed purchased. Growers who kept their seed should have a germination test made or at least run an old time "Rag Doll" test before planting.

Record books entered by 4-H Club members in connection with the Randall County Junior Livestock Show have been judged. Winners are: Gary Fletcher, first in sheep; Larry Dale Robinson, first in steers; and Linda Metcalf, first in swine. Second place winners were: Phil Fletcher, sheep; Ben Byrd, steers; and Darrell Yarborough, swine.

Randall County wheat fields are still suffering damage from greenbugs, cutworms, and spider mites. One report from southeast of Canyon indicates a good kill on greenbugs was received from a spraying last week. The temperature is now approaching the correct reading to make control work much better.

No satisfactory control of the wheat mite with chemicals has been found. They usually are forgotten after a rain as the

HOUSEWIFE of the MONTH

MRS. NEIL DOWNING

Mrs. Neil Downing is hard put to tell anyone which of her many Frigidaire appliances she uses the most.

To start with the kitchen, Mrs. Downing says she wouldn't take for her double oven Frigidaire range. "I use both ovens," she reported.

Her frost-proof Frigidaire refrigerator-freezer is something else in which Mrs. Downing delights. "That big freezing unit sure saves a lot of steps to the big home freezer," she declared.

Now Mrs. Downing has a big family and she lives on a dairy farm where she wages constant battle with soiled clothes.

"I use my Frigidaire washer and dryer every day," she said. "I don't know what I'd do without them."

Mrs. Downing feels that her dishwasher pays for itself in saving on medical bills. "It works as a sterilizer and it sure gets those germs," she reported.

The Downings have four children at home. They are Patricia, 21, a West Texas State student; Mike, 8; Linda 10; and Nancy, 16.

The whole family is sold on Frigidaire.

April 13 Key Cotton Date In Randall

April 13 is an important date to cotton farmers.

That's the final date to release cotton acreage that will not be planted this year.

And it's the final date to apply for an increase in cotton acreage.

Doyle G. Thomas, office manager for the Randall County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, also reminded producers only a week remains for them to sign for the 1962 feed grain program.

"Producers who plan to participate will be able to avoid the last minute rush somewhat by signing an intention to participate as early as possible," he said in his current newsletter.

Thomas added: "The objectives of this year's program are the same as in 1961.

"1. Increase farm production.

"2. To reduce the buildup of feed grain going into government storage and as a result reduce costs of farm programs.

"3. Reduce risk of overproduction of meat, poultry, and dairy products.

"4. Assure consumers fair and stable prices for meat, poultry and dairy products.

"All four of these objectives were accomplished in 1961."

Two From City On Coral Sea

Two men from Canyon are serving with the Navy aboard the aircraft carrier USS Coral Sea, which recently arrived in Yokosuka, Japan.

They are Richard E. Louder, aviation machinist's mate third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas B. Louder; and Edward L. Bednorz, aviation electrician's mate first class, son of Mrs. Sophie C. Snoga.

They are with Heavy Attack Squadron Two, which is operating in Far Eastern waters with the Seventh Fleet.

Wreck Kills 8-Year-Old

The eight-year-old sister of a Canyon resident has been killed in an automobile accident near Manzanola, Colo.

The victim was Genevieve Raye Erskine, whose sister, Mrs. Rex Griffin, lives here.

Funeral and burial services were held in Dallas Monday.

The child was killed when the station wagon her father was driving overturned. Dural Ray Erskine, 54, lost control of the vehicle when a tire blew and the 45-foot house trailer being towed crushed the car.

The family was moving from Colorado Springs to Whitney, Texas. Erskine and his wife were treated and later released from the Pioneers Hospital in Rocky Ford, Colo.

The child, who was born in Amarillo, is also survived by another sister, Mrs. Bill Halstead of Colorado Springs, formerly of Amarillo; a grandmother, Mrs. Lillie Gull of Amarillo; and an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Gill.

Wage earners who have more than one employer must include income from all sources on their federal income tax returns.
